

Name _____

Grammar

Read each question. Fill in the circle next to the best answer.

1. Which of these is a sentence?
 - A. Sandra and her family.
 - B. They are planning a bicycle tour.
 - C. Riding for four days.
 - D. Camping out along the way.

2. Which of these is not a sentence?
 - F. Marty has a new bike.
 - G. His parents helped him choose it.
 - H. Learning the safety rules.
 - J. He always wears a helmet.

3. Which of these is a command?
 - A. Is that a bicycle for two?
 - B. The back seat is small enough for a child.
 - C. Get on and try it.
 - D. I've never had so much fun!

4. Which of these is a question?
 - F. What a loud pop that was!
 - G. Help me fix this flat tire.
 - H. The new tube is in my backpack.
 - J. Do you know how to pump up the tire?

5. Which of these is an exclamation?
- A. We're planning a neighborhood bicycle race.
 - B. What a great idea that is!
 - C. Will the race include children and adults?
 - D. Invite your whole family to come.

6. Which of these is a statement?
- F. What will happen after the race?
 - G. There will be a big cookout.
 - H. It will be lots of fun!
 - J. Come and have burgers and pie with us.

7. What is the subject of this sentence?
- All the riders put their packs in the van.*
- A. All
 - B. put their packs
 - C. All the riders
 - D. packs in the van

8. What is the predicate of this sentence?
- The group rode the first ten miles in one hour.*
- F. rode the first ten miles in one hour
 - G. The group
 - H. the first ten miles
 - J. in one hour

9. What is the predicate of this sentence?

The first riders arrived at the campsite at four o'clock.

- A. at the campsite at four o'clock
- B. at the campsite
- C. The first riders
- D. arrived at the campsite at four o'clock

10. What is the subject of this sentence?

Everyone enjoyed a big meal after the long ride.

- F. after the long ride
- G. Everyone
- H. enjoyed a big meal
- J. a big meal

