

Name _____

Vocabulary

Read the sentences and answer the questions. Fill in the circle next to the best answer.

- Which set of entry words is in correct alphabetical order?
 - A. netting ninety nibble nickel
 - B. forget form forest forgive
 - C. spell spent spine spike
 - D. excuse exercise expect explain
- Which set of entry words is in correct alphabetical order?
 - F. flame flap float flat
 - G. boot boil bold born
 - H. meadow meal meant meet
 - J. eager eagle earth earn
- Which set of guide words might appear at the top of a dictionary page on which the word baggage is found?
 - A. badger/bald
 - B. back/bag
 - C. badge/bagel
 - D. backward/baffle
- Which set of guide words might appear at the top of a dictionary page on which the word loud is found?
 - F. lore/lost
 - G. loot/love
 - H. loose/lotion
 - J. lose/lot
- Which set of guide words might appear at the top of a dictionary page on which the word journey is found?
 - A. join/jot
 - B. joke/journal
 - C. jog/joy
 - D. jolly/jot

6. Which word from a thesaurus has the closest meaning to walk in this sentence?

My family took a three-mile walk through a national forest.

- F. way H. hike
 G. lane J. path

7. Which word from a thesaurus has the closest meaning to road in this sentence?

We drove home through the city on a noisy, crowded road.

- A. avenue C. lane
 B. path D. highway

8. Which meaning of bat is correct for this sentence?

Our class visited a cave that is home to thousands of bats.

- F. a small flying animal
 G. to wink or blink the eyes
 H. to strike with a stick
 J. a stick used to hit a baseball

9. Which meaning of fly is correct for this sentence?

Elsa will fly to Maine to see her aunt.

- A. a baseball high in the air
 B. to travel by airplane
 C. a small insect with wings
 D. to run away quickly

10. Which meaning of rest is correct for this sentence?

For the rest of the trip, Sam read a book.

- F. remaining part
 G. to lie down or sleep
 H. to not move or do anything
 J. a support

Name _____

Grammar

Read the sentences and answer the questions. Fill in the circle next to the best answer.

1. Which sentence is a command?
 - A. Do you like to travel by train?
 - B. Do your packing the day before the trip.
 - C. I'm excited about our trip!
 - D. Our train leaves at six in the morning.

2. What is the complete subject of this sentence?
The woman in the blue dress slept during the trip.
 - F. The woman
 - G. slept during the trip
 - H. The woman in the blue dress
 - J. woman

3. Which word in this sentence is a common noun that names a thing?
On Presidents' Day, our class went to the Lincoln Memorial.
 - A. Presidents' Day
 - B. class
 - C. went
 - D. Lincoln Memorial

4. Which sentence is a compound sentence?
 - F. Tran has seen Texas, but he hasn't seen New Mexico.
 - G. He hopes to visit New Mexico next summer.
 - H. Tran and his sister like to travel with their parents.
 - J. They may go to Europe or Asia next year.

5. What is the complete predicate of this sentence?
Our whole family went to the beach last summer.

- A. Our whole family
- B. went
- C. went to the beach
- D. went to the beach last summer

6. Which word in this sentence is a common noun that names a place?
Many visitors come to Elmwood to see the park.

- F. Many
- G. park
- H. visitors
- J. Elmwood

7. What is the simple predicate of this sentence?
Campers of all ages visit Big Bend National Park.

- A. visit
- B. Campers
- C. Big Bend National Park
- D. ages

8. Which sentence is a compound sentence?

- F. The explorers' journey lasted nearly a year.
- G. They crossed dry deserts and rushing rivers.
- H. They were tired but happy at the journey's end.
- J. The land was rough, and the weather was harsh.

9. Which sentence is a statement?
- A. Come listen to my latest news.
 - B. Did I tell you about our vacation?
 - C. We're going to Washington, D.C.
 - D. We might meet the President!
10. What is the simple subject of this sentence?
- Many schools often take students on field trips.*
- F. Many
 - G. schools
 - H. students
 - J. trips

