Surprise Adventure

Lee's aunt was taking him on a surprise adventure. Right after breakfast, Lee got out Aunt Terry's list that told him what to bring. First, he found his hiking boots and then his hat. Next, he put a hand shovel and some work gloves into his backpack. Last of all, he made a sandwich and packed a lunch.

Aunt Terry honked the horn, and Lee ran out to the car with his pack. "Are you ready?" asked Aunt Terry.

"I think so," said Lee. "I have everything on the list."

Aunt Terry drove out into the hills. When they arrived at the trailhead they put on their packs. "Are you ready?" asked Aunt Terry. "We're going to hunt for fossils!"

Lee was excited! After hiking for a bit, he found a big rock with something in it. Aunt Terry and Lee dug it out with their shovels. After they cleaned off the rock, Aunt Terry patted Lee on the back. "You found a shell fossil!" she said. "It was probably formed before dinosaurs were even alive."

Lee couldn't believe it. "I've never found a fossil before," he said. "What a great adventure! Thanks, Aunt Terry!"
